Sing praises to the LORD, O you his faithful ones, and give thanks to his holy name. Psalm 30.4

Many people have turned to the Psalms as a source for comfort and wisdom in the spiritual journey. I think this has been the case because the Psalms are realistic about the struggles we have in this life; but are also unapologetically confident in the presence and unending work of God. Take for instance that most famous of Psalms, the 23rd, “Yea though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I shall fear no evil.” There is no suggestion that a different road would be provided, no the current path is through the valley of the shadow of death; however there is a confidence that even in the midst of such realities fear does not need to overcome a person’s hope and trust in God because “thou (God) art with me!”

I’ve been thinking about this promise as we enter into the time of Thanksgiving. If you read the next verse of Psalm 30 (see above) you’ll find: “For his anger is but for a moment; his favor is for a lifetime. Weeping may linger for the night, but joy comes with the morning.” Faith for the Psalmist is staking out one’s position that the trials we endure are but one piece of a much longer journey. A journey that always moves forward in hopeful expectation of what God can bring about. I think we need this kind of faith today.

A faith that is realistic about the issues and concerns in front of us as individuals, a community, a nation and a church; but unapologetically confident that God is at work and that morning is coming with the light and warmth of a new day. That is my Thanksgiving prayer for each and every one of us here at LCR: That we keep our eyes on the horizon, anxiously expecting God to be at work through Jesus. This is after all our story. May you enjoy a blessed Thanksgiving in hopeful expectation of all that is to come.

Peace! - Pastor Jeff

ADVENT 2021 - Light One Candle for Messiah...

This year some of our woodworking friends - Marlin Oeltjen, Jim Dettbarn, Dennis Heppler, and Bob Erlandson - have made a special “Advent board” to help us prepare for Christmas. Every family is invited to take one of these special Advent boards home and use them with the LCR Advent guide. The boards and devotions will be available on Sunday, November 28th at worship. Use them daily as a time of personal prayer to keep you centered on the gift of Jesus and the celebration of his coming into the world. Tea lights are provided, but for those families who might want a non-flame alternative we recommend the battery operated lights available at craft stores. And for those who might want to add a little creative touch to their Advent board, there will be a special Family Advent Gathering on Sunday, November 28th where you can personally decorate your Advent boards following 10:30 am worship.

Thanksgiving Eve Worship & Fellowship

The Chosen - concludes on Sunday, November 7th at 4:00 pm

Your Gifts At Work!

As a part of our Annual Campaign we give people the opportunity to offer a special 'one time gift' to an identified need. Last year's one time gifts for Technology, Safety, Infrastructure, and Derecho-related expenses made a tremendous impact. Your gifts of over $11,000 allowed us to cover our Derecho-related insurance deductible ($2,500) for repair of siding, electrical, HVAC, and much more; Install Security cameras ($3,261); Replace our water heater ($1,047); Provide new microphones and assistance for sound at worship ($1,391); Parking lot lighting ($1,150); and will enable Water damage repair and window replacement for the garage/woodworking area ($1,800 bid pending).

This year's special "One Time Gift" will go to support our Children's and Youth ministry. Your generosity, over and above your faithful yearly pledge, makes a direct impact on lives here in our community - thank you!

Adult Faith Development

Lifetree Cafe

.... meets on Fridays from 12:00 to 1:00 pm on the 2nd and 4th Fridays of each month. For those who are not familiar with Lifetree, it is not a Bible study or book group. Rather, we introduce a pertinent topic, provide some basic information, and then have both large and small group discussions. As the motto says: "You're welcome just as you are. Your thoughts are welcome, your doubts are welcome. We're all in this together. God is here, ready to connect with you in a fresh way." We have coffee ready and provide some pre-packaged snacks for those who want them. Please join us on Friday, November 12! (no Lifetree on Thanksgiving Day)

Current LCR policy is that masks are optional for those who have been fully vaccinated.

JAM (Jesus And Me)

JAM meets on the second Monday of each month at 1:00 pm in the YAC. We are a group of women who are currently studying the Proverbs. You are welcome to jump in to our group at any time! Contact Linda Hayward (lhayward495@yahoo.com) to get on our email list.

We use a study guide and encourage participants to read the questions in the guide before reading the text, noting which questions they would like to discuss. In recent sessions, we've discovered that reading the text in different versions of the Bible is helpful and interesting, and that checking the internet for commentaries on the Proverbs can help to clarify scripture meanings.

Biblical Potpourri - Sunday Mornings and Wednesday Nights

Pastor Jeff is offering a "Biblical Potpourri" as he takes us on a journey through scripture, looking at one verse/theme in each of the 66 books of the Bible! This is a great way to begin to understand the Bible as a whole and dive into some of those lesser-known parts of scripture. Come for every session, or just drop in as you are able - there's always a place for you. We're meeting at 9:45 am on Sundays and 7:00 pm on Wednesdays, both in the conference room.

Wednesday Scripture Study

There is no better way to prepare for worship than to be in conversation with the scriptures.

Your thoughts and insights will help enlighten Pastor Jeff's weekly sermons and prepare you to get more out of worship. We meet each Wednesday at 11:00 am. This is an in-person study at the church, so we are social distancing in the fellowship hall.

Parent-Child Caring Connections

Learning how to deal with behaviors without losing your marbles!

Raising and supporting kids can be a tough, but fulfilling job. Have you ever struggled to get your child to calm down when they're upset? Been unable to help them when they're melting down in the cereal aisle? Jen & Symon Sanborn would like the opportunity to share with our LCR family some tools to help you connect with your child in supportive and thoughtful ways. This is a two-part class will meet on Sunday, November 14 and 21 at 9:40 am.

Stephen Ministry

Ministry of Caring

St. Matthew said that at the last judgement Jesus will say these words: "For I was hungry and you gave me something to eat, I was thirsty and you gave me something to drink, I was a stranger and you invited me in, I needed clothes and you clothed me, I was sick and you looked after me, I was in prison and you came to visit me." (Matthew 25:35-36)

One of the ways our congregation cares for others is through our trained Stephen Ministers, who go to those in need and care for them. Continue sharing in this ministry by praying for our Stephen Ministers and for their care receivers.

Stephen Ministers offer caring Christian friendship and concerned listening to people when they need it most.

Please call the church office to inquire about this ministry. - Mary Hajek and Scott Immerfall

Associate Pastor Forum

Join us on Sunday, November 7 at 9:40 am in the Fellowship Hall as we report back on your response to moving forward with a conversation to consider calling Pastor Nate as our full time Associate Pastor (spoiler alert: it was unanimously positive with over 80 responses). At this forum we'll provide a potential road map for moving forward with the conversation, and once again provide an opportunity for you to give input and respond. While the council has responded to your enthusiasm to establish a process, this endeavor is wholly dependent on the will and desire of you, the congregation, as we discern the promptings of the Holy Spirit.
